Failing to file

$7,290

Independent spenders are required to file complete and timely disclosure statements on scheduled dates. See Board Rules 14-02, 14-03. A late filing of a disclosure statement is a failure to file if not submitted within three days of its due date or by two days before Election Day, whichever is earlier.

The Spender reported seven digital advertisements distributed on June 17, supporting various candidates, with associated expenditures of $29,162. These communications were subject to the daily disclosure requirements and should have been reported by June 19. The Spender disclosed these communications on June 22 – the day of the primary election– constituting a failure to file.

The Board assessed a penalty of $7,290 for this violation.
