

Better absentee voting end voting machines better polls places election reforms more accessible to disabled people women people of color and young people and progressives people independents erase electoral college but instead popular vote expand polls place expand voting hours 24 hour voting places higher turnout for democrats better messaging for democrats

Essence Scott